

ERP Consultant (Experienced)

Job Highlights:

- Travel overseas for project implementation.
- No SAP experiences? You will be trained to become the expert
- Opportunity to work with multinational companies

We are looking for a dedicated personality to join our big family as ERP Consultant. you will join our expanding team to work on the global rollout projects for RISE with SAP S/4HANA Cloud, public edition, or SAP Business ByDesign project implementation.

You will play an essential role in

- Managing and supporting RISE with SAP S/4HANA Cloud, public edition / SAP Business ByDesign project implementation.
- Implementing supplementary solutions to SAP, such as Boomi or Magic xpi.
- Understanding global customers' business processes and collaborating with SAP global team regarding concept design and implementation.
- Translating business requirements into business solutions as well as process improvements.

To be successful in this role, you will need to have

- Diploma or Degree in any field of studies with at least 3 years of experience in any ERP solution as a consultant.
- Demonstrated knowledge of all aspects of ERP project lifecycle including design, blueprinting, functional configuration, testing, and cutover to system Go-Live.
- Excellent understanding of industry best practices as related to Finance Accounting, Procurement, Inventory Management, CRM, Sales, and Distribution.
- Strong proficiency in the English language with experience in managing multiple stakeholders and their priorities.
- Ability to analyse problems and provide clear recommendations to drive a project forward.

You will get a plus point if you have

- An experience in SAP ECC FICO, finance, and accounting.
- Knowledge and functional skills in solutions such as SAP S/4HANA, Oracle, JDE, Infor, SAGE, and Microsoft AX.
- Ability to read, write and speak business level of Japanese.

How this career will benefit you?

- The chance to be at the leading edge of a fast-growing SAP consulting company
- Get involved with a young and highly motivated international colleagues
- A conducive environment to work and grow.
- Dental, medical insurance
- Promotion opportunities within the company
- Parking allowances
- Exciting outdoor activities and team building